

Right of Reply of the Delegation of the Republic of Türkiye to the Statement of the U.S Delegation (Plenary Session 2 / WHDC)

According to the Turkish Constitution, judicial power is exercised by independent courts and judges take decisions in accordance with the Constitution, laws and their personal conviction conforming to the law.

No organ, authority, office or individual may give orders or instructions or make recommendations or suggestions to courts.

The judicial case regarding Mr. Selahattin Demirtaş has also been handled by our independent judiciary.

Domestic legal proceedings should be respected and any acts that could interfere with it must be avoided.
